Governor's Message

June brings to a close my first year as Governor of the Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of California. Many things have transpired, some not so well but others very well. All have been learning experiences for me. I appreciate the hard work involved by each member of this Board of Assistants and all Colony Officers. Times have changed from when I joined in 1976, but the Society has always moved forward. California is the second largest State Society, second to Massachusetts. We are patterned after the General Society of Mayflower Descendants.

As reported in the past board meeting the IRS had informed us that our tax exempt status had been dropped. After many telephone calls and letters, I believe this has been resolved and we now have the tax exempt status returned. Treasurer Ward White hired a CPA to prepare the 2011 tax forms using the correct tax ID number.

A contract with the Queen Mary in Long Beach has been signed for the June 2013 Membership Meeting. The guest speaker will by Governor General Bruce C. MacGunnigle. It should be a very enjoyable meeting. Please mark your calendars and make plans to attend. Mary Mitchell has resigned as Editor and we have been looking for a qualified replacement for her. She did an outstanding job as Co-Editor and will be missed. Two people were identified as possible replacements and contacts attempted and made before Ray Raser, from San Diego Colony stepped forward to volunteer with his wife, Gail's, support. The upcoming General Society of Mayflower Descendants Board of Assistants meeting is scheduled for New Jersey in September 2012. California has many representatives on the various Committees and Boards.

Correspondence: I received two e-mails, one from the Members at Large which was basically a report of their continued efforts to be seen as a viable group. It is my opinion that we encourage all members to be active in the local established Colony rather than Member At Large status.

The second e-mail was from Inland Empire Colony Delegate David Grinnell concerning travel reimbursement. This was discussed very briefly as to the existing policies under new business and no changes made. Also at the close of the meeting a motion was made to form a viable Web Site Committee. I am looking for those interested in helping with this committee so that appointments to the committee can be officially made.

Thank you for your continued support. I hope the accomplishments of the following year will be even better.

CA Deputy Governor North

16 June 2012

The Mother Lode Colony asked me to speak at their Compact Day. Unfortunately, it is the same day as the joint Alameda/San Francisco/Marin Compact Day so I had to decline. We tried to find another date in the near future, but most of their meeting dates conflicted either with Board of Assistants meetings or meetings of the Redwood Empire Colony of which I am governor. We will try to come up with a convenient date next year.

I would like to point out to all the colonies to keep the Board of Assistants meeting dates in mind when planning their colony meeting dates.

> Respectfully submitted, Patricia M. Friesen California Deputy Governor North

CA Deputy Governor South

To date I have visited all of the active colonies in the South: Santa Barbara, LA, Inland Empire, OC, & San Diego. I had the pleasure of installing the new 2012-2014 officers for the San Diego colony at the May 19th luncheon.

For the third year we had a Mayflower booth at the SoCal Genealogical Society Jamboree in Burbank. This is a terrific outreach program and Dotty Wilson, Erica Hahn, Ray Raser and myself worked hard, but enjoyed talking with many probable Mayflower descendants. Approximately 42 people provided email addresses requesting further contact. We signed up to host our exhibit again next May.

Also, we were invited to attend the South Bay Cities Genealogical Society meeting in Torrance on September 19 dressed in pilgrim clothing. LA colony members are encouraged to represent us.

I represented the state Mayflower at the memorial service of Anne Donahue Lampman on May 15, 2012. Anne was a member of the OC colony and a former state regent of DAR. Wearing of Mayflower Insignia was requested by her family.

On September 4th 1916 a letter from the California Mayflower State Society was addressed to the Southern membership informing them that it was decided to urge that a Compact Day celebration be held in Los Angeles on the same day (Nov 25th) as the one in the North. This meeting was put together and guided by Col Collins with considerable success. "About seventy people were present, and the response to the call of ancestral roll was 44, representing 14 lines". The Honorable Frank Thomas Woodman, Mayor of Los Angeles handled the banquet menu with a delectable presentation. Speakers were: Col. Collins who spoke about the influence of the Dutch during the Pilgrims stay in Leyden, Hon. Grant Jackson, Judge of the Superior Court who spoke about the early California immigrants and the Pilgrim forefathers in the effort to people a wilderness, and General Frank Clark Prescott (Veteran of the Philippines) who spoke about the personalities of the Pilgrims themselves.

At this time the Los Angeles Office of the California Society Of Mayflower Descendents was founded at 719 San Fernando Boulevard. These were Col Collins offices and the home of the Son's of the Revolution Library of which he was president. A little over a decade later, and after Col Collins passed away, the Son's of the Revolution Library went public. Its president was another member of the California Mayflower Board of Assistants, Mr Orra Eugene Monnette (Ca State #73 descended from Edward Fuller). Mr Monnette is famous for having founded the Bank of America, and while president of the library commission, building the Los Angeles Public Library which is the largest in the world. The Son's of the Revolution Library was again made the home of the Mayflower Society in Los Angeles. It is known that Mayflower offices were in existence in downtown Los Angeles in the fifties and probably at the Son's of the Revolution Library.

In 1927 The Southern Division of Mayflower Descendents in the State of California had been meeting for 11 years. It was decided to change the name to the Los Angeles Colony and present it with a charter that covered all of Southern California or the former Southern Division. There were three members of the California Board of Assistants living in the Southland. Mr. Arthur Cooke Davis who became the first regent (later called governor) Mr. Orra Eugene Monnette who held the first meeting in his home, and would become the second regent, and Carl Clifton Curtis of Pasadena.

A fourth member was conspicuously absent and deeply missed. On February 22 of that same year the Los Angeles times reported that Col. Holdridge Ozro Collins was the victim of a hit-and —run driver while crossing the intersection of Fountain and Edgemont in Hollywood. He had been returning from a Son's of the Revolution meeting. Col. Collins was married to Mary Balance in 1874 and left two daughters behind: Mrs. Charles Maclay Booth and Mrs. Noel C. Edwards.

Col. Collins was also a member of: Society of the War of 1812, Knights Templers, Ancient and Honorable Artillery, Veteran Corps of the Illinois National Guard, Harvard Alumni Association, Southern California Science Association.

Col. Holdridge Ozro Collins

Descended from William Bradford
California Mayflower # 71 General So # 3367
California Mayflower's First Southern Regent 1916

A founding father of genealogical Societies of the Pacific and Southern California.

Lost in time that few remember is a man who brought American genealogical history to the West Coast through the organization of Societies in the late 1800's. He championed the building of the first and still significant Genealogical library starting in 1895 which is today known as The American Heritage Library in Glendale at 600 South Central. Col. Holdridge Ozro Collins was born in New York, studied law at Harvard, and was a LT. Colonel in the Illinois National Guard. He eventually came to California where he became the first president of the Son's of the Revolution whose first meeting was in 1893. The library began in his offices in Downtown Los Angeles, and grew with the many contributions of patriotic Americans such as Orra Eugene Monnette. By the turn of the Century the collection was over 5000 books while today it has grown to over 30,000, many of which are rare and nearly impossible to find anywhere on the West Coast.

On March 7th 1896 at the banquet hall of the restaurant of Jerry Illich on Third Street, in the city of Los Angeles, The Society of Colonial Wars held their first General Court where Col. Collins was elected President. He gave a speech, of which the following is an extract from the first page:

"In 1620, November 11, old style, the Mayflower anchored at Cape Cod, in what is now Provincetown harbor, and on that date the famous compact was signed, and Bancroft asserts that "this was the birthplace of popular constitutional liberty" (U. S., Vol. I, p. 310). Mr. Goodwin, in his " Pilgrim Republic", says that Provincetown "may justly claim to be the birthplace of the free and equal government which now spans the continent" (p. 65).

"Voltaire said of William Penn's treaty, 'It was the only one ever concluded between savages and christians that was not ratified with an oath, and the only one that was never broken."

"This is an error. The treaty made at Plymouth in April, 1621, between the Pilgrims and Massasoit, Grand Sachem of the Confederated Tribes of Pokanoket, was ratified by no oath, nor was it broken during the lifetime of any of the contracting parties."

On August 19th 1915 Col. Collins was chosen as a member of the Board of Assistants of the California Mayflower Society. At that time there was no division between North and South, but many members in the South found it hard to attend meetings in the North.

WHAT IS A JUNIOR MEMBER

The Constitution of our Society, Article III, Section 6

A member in good standing in any State Society may make an application for Junior Membership in behalf of any person under eighteen years of age who has a Prima Facie proven lineage.

A Junior Membership in the Society of Mayflower Descendants makes our children aware of their Mayflower Heritage and it will make them proud to be a descendant of a Mayflower passenger. It gives us the chance to let the Junior Member know that we care about our Heritage and will support this memory in every way that we can.

You, as a Sponsor, fill out the application and pay the fee($25) in California. The statement of the Sponsor's lineage is honored, there is no documentation required.

Our intent is to make it easy for our descendants to join our Society in the future. We give all Juniors a certificate, a book and wonderful articles containing our Mayflower History. On their eighteenth birthday Juniors may send documentation for joining the Society just as you, the sponsor did. If you would like a full membership for your Junior, give him/her a Junior Life Membership.

Please note: If the Sponsor would like to have the Junior Certificate and packet sent to them, please request it, otherwise, it will be sent directly to the Junior Member.

Sponsors: Would you also please keep me informed of any address changes of your Junior.

I want to THANK YOU for your tremendous support of our Junior Members. They are the future of our Society!!

SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS STATE OF CALIFORNIA

JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP REPORT June 16, 2012

Dear Board of Assistants Members, There are 352 Junior Members in the State of California!!!

I would like to propose that the fee be raised $5 to $25 for a Junior Application. The Junior Essay, and Poem Contest would be nice to have in October with the results given for Thanksgiving and Compact Day recognition in the colonies of the winners. Grades 1-3, for the first category, Grades 3-6 the second category, Grades 6-8 the third category, Grades 9-12 the fourth category.

It would be exciting to have the first Junior Membership Meeting for Northern California in the Sacramento-Folsom area. The Junior Meeting for Southern California could be in the San Diego Area. The cost per Junior would be for lunch to be purchased, approximately$5-$10, transportation to the area-by car, gasoline cost to the respective places- Sacramento/Folsom and San Diego and a meeting place to be determined. To have a good response I think it should be in 2013 either in the spring-April or early fall, September, October with a prize for each category.

I have a Family Reunion on Saturday but I will be to the meeting. Thank you to Ward White for including some Juniors in the Rose Parade in January.

Kind Regards, Jane Stratford Clayson Junior Membership Chair State of California

Jim Blauer CA Mayflower Education Chair also attended and reviewed the CA Mayflower Scholarship programs. The program featured SD Colony Recording Secretary Kathleen Loftman & husband Russ who presented a very interesting program on historical weapons of their ancestors from the French & Indian War to current times. Governor Ray Raser announced that as the SD Colony Historian he had digitized over 1000 pages & photos from the six boxes of Colony scrapbooks and miscellaneous materials.

The scrapbooks will now be donated the San Diego Genealogical Society collection at new San Diego City Library or other suitable repository. Previously Ray had compiled "Six Decades of History" a historical account of the San Diego Colony from founding in 1949 to present that was presented to members..

San Francisco Colony

The June meeting of the San Francisco Peninsula Colony was held at one of the major landmarks in San Francisco. We were lead on an informational walking tour of Grace Cathedral, the third largest Episcopal Church in the country, by our own Jay Ingwalson, a long-time docent at the Cathedral. Highlights included the Paradise Doors (one of three original copies in the world), glorious leaded glass and murals of church and California history. A business meeting was held after the tour in one of the meeting rooms at the Cathedral.

San Joaquin Valley Colony

The San Joaquin Valley Colony has had three meetings since last we submitted news. Our combined summer and fall meeting, held November 5, 2011, hosted 11 people. We have 84 members, yet have small turn-out, we hope to remedy that. Professor Don Larson talked on the Gifts of the Pilgrim Ancestors, their contribution to our American philosophy and morality. At our winter meeting, held February 25, 2012, Connie Waldron, an historian devoted to Indian and early American documents, gave us an interesting picture of the Iroquois Nation and their interaction with white people prior to 1776. She showed us how many of the Iroquois Nation philosophies were actually incorporated into our early government documents. 19 people attended.

The speaker for our spring meeting was, David Ofwono, a Captain in the Buffalo Soldiers, 9th and 10th Cavalry stationed out of Los Banos. This particular group does a lot of work with students teaching them the discipline of the Buffalo Soldiers. The Buffalo Soldiers were the first park rangers of Yosemite, and Buffalo Soldier, Captain Charles Young, who was Superintendent of Sequoia National Park brought two troops to protect the trees and parks from harm and build the road to Giant's Grove.

Our combined Summer-Fall Meeting will be held November 17, at the Piccadilly Inn on Shaw Ave. in Fresno. All are welcome.

Scholarship 3rd Place Winner Lindsay Cellar

Having grown up memorizing Bible verses and spending every Sunday at church, my religion is a very important part of my life. My faith is what makes me who I am, and I can only imagine the incredible feeling it must have been for my ancestors stepping off of the Mayflower knowing that they now had the ability to practice their faith in the way they chose.

The fact that these people found the courage to leave their homeland in search of something that they felt was a crucial part of them has inspired me to be the best person that I can be in an attempt to show others, as did the people on board the Mayflower, what is important to me.

The amount of courage and faith that it took the pilgrims travelling on the Mayflower in search of their religious freedom and the right to be governed by the people is awe inspiring because it demonstrates the importance of standing up for that in which you believe. In today's society, many people decide to just follow what others do instead of forging their own path, but clearly, the pilgrims saw that there are some things worth fighting for and chose to stand up for what they felt was an extreme injustice.

Being a descendant of a Mayflower passenger has taught me the importance of being myself and not settling for who others tell me to be because the pilgrims, including my ancestor, Edward Doty, felt that it was important for people to have a say in how they lived and were governed. Edward Doty was one of the original signers of the Mayflower Compact, a declaration that stated that the people would have a say in how they were governed. This first step toward democracy paved the way for not only our country but for people all over the world to see that it is important for the people to be able to actively participate in the way in which they are governed.

The perseverance that it took the Mayflower travelers to make it through that difficult journey across the Atlantic Ocean as well as to endure the conditions of the first winter that they faced here in America illustrates the importance of hard work in order to achieve one's goals. The goals of the people aboard the Mayflower included religious freedom, a choice in how they wished to be governed, and most importantly, a new life. From these important people, I have seen that no matter how terrible a situation might seem, such as a long trip across an ocean in a boat crowded with people, with a little bit of faith and a lot of drive, it is possible to achieve one's goals if one truly believes in what he or she is attempting to achieve. The people who eventually made it to Plymouth Rock were able to start their own colony and their new lives despite all of the hardships they were forced to endure.

Being a Mayflower descendant reminds me that I have the power to be who I choose to be, the importance of standing up for what I find is important, and the fact that with a little faith and perseverance, anything is possible

Scholarship 2nd Place Winner Allison Freeman

When the annual lesson of how the Pilgrims bravely traveled on the Mayflower to escape religious persecution is taught, most children are too enraptured in their daydreams of the upcoming time off from school and turkey they will devour to care about a four hundred year old boat. For a while I was one of them, too, more focused on the pie I was about to gorge myself with rather than the meaning behind Thanksgiving or the people the holiday pays homage to. Then when you learn you are actually related to one of these people, you start to change your opinion. Though being only eight upon finding out, I didn't initially understand its full significance, beyond having great bragging rights. It took time and a trip to visit Plymouth Rock to realize how truly lucky I am to call Peter Brown my ancestor.

.Almost three hundred years after the Mayflower's journey, four humble Jewish families from Austria, Russia, and Poland passed through the gates of Ellis Island, marking their own arrival in America. I am continually inspired by what an extraordinary feat it was to leave for America with hopes of a new life in a world completely unknown to him. Coming from such a strong person, I know I have the power to shape my life however I want and to peruse any dream. Sharing this ancestry has blessed me with such a strong, instant connection to those voyagers, their achievement, and the United States as a whole that I really had never felt before. A desire for freedom of religion was the driving force behind the Mayflower's voyage, and that liberty was a founding principle for America as the country was established and continues to make it a haven for those seeking independence. They were very different from the Pilgrims, yet they had all found themselves fleeing their homelands due to religious persecution. While anti-Semitism rampaged through Europe, America proved to be a refuge, a welcoming place where they could practice their faith without fearing for their lives. As hatred and turmoil continued to fester, these families and their descendants escaped the tragedy of the Holocaust alive. Other family members, unable to leave Europe, were not as lucky to share the same fortune. Thought horribly sad, this incident is just a testament to the affect of the Mayflower's passengers upon the generations that followed them.

Through the course of history, those four families' paths crossed, and they merged together to form the other side of my family tree. It is all due to those brave adventurers of 1620 that America has continued its reputation as an inclusive place for every race and religion, a quality I find as a deep source of pride. Though my Mayflower connection only runs through one half of my ancestry, I find survivors of discrimination and persecution on both sides. I am a product of a long line of dreamers and doers, those who dared to take a leap of faith in the dedicated pursuit of equality. I know I must continue their legacy with every choice I make in my life. With the decision to sail to America aboard that legendary vessel, my relative unknowingly opened the door of opportunity for the other side of my family. It is easy to remark about what an impact the Pilgrims had on freedom and opportunity, but without my Mayflower ancestry, I can truly say I would not be here today. And for that, I am truly thankful.

Having previously installed Skype at Former State Governor Donna Cole's home, we are now planning to upgrade her system to handle board meetings. Skype has gone through two version upgrades since the last meeting. Internet Cyber Warfare has been increasing, and attacks on domestic targets are now considered certain with only the question of when. Large backup hard drives are available in the three terabyte size for as little as $150, and it is recommended that everybody have one.

His grandmother Judith Bergen is his California connection. In 2nd with 289 points was Allison Freeman of Mill Valley, CA. Her mother Virginia Freeman is her California connection. 3rd was Lindsay Grace Cellar of Los Gatos, CA. She is a Junior Member which qualifies her as her connection to the California Society.

Depending on whether there is enough money in the Scholarship account will determine if there is to be a Scholarship for the Third place finisher. Following the meeting I will in the next week attempt to contact all the entrants to thank them for their participation and advise them if they have won one of the scholarships or not.

Lastly I wish to thank the members and colonies who have donated to the Scholarship Fund over the past year. Without these donations there are no scholarships to give out.

Scholarship 1st Place Winner Nicolas Bergen What My Mayflower Ancestry Means To Me

A person's ancestry is important when it comes to understanding who you are. My ancestry has great meaning for me. Who my ancestors were and what they did have made me who I am today. My ancestors set an example and lived out ideals and principles that I hold in my own life. The very fact that my ancestors believed in something strongly enough to sacrifice and risk their lives simply to be free inspires and encourages me to stand strong in what I believe in as well. Although I am not a separatist, I still can appreciate what they did. They were willing to risk their own lives for the sake of future generations. To be one of the descendants of the Pilgrim community will always affect the way that I approach the future. Whether I am thinking of my own future or the future of the generations yet to come. My Mayflower ancestry is one of the most inspiring examples that I consider when I think about my life.

I can't help but feel the responsibility I carry as my choices affect the many that follow me into the future.

Richard Warren, my ancestor who traveled here in the Mayflower voyage, had courage and strength such that his descendants hundreds of years later still remember. The Pilgrims set an example of great perseverance through a great deal of tragedy to find a solution to their problems. The fact that I have a family history dating all the way back to 1620, and farther, is not something that everyone has.

I appreciate knowing that my family has been functional, and faithful for hundreds of years. It puts weight on my shoulders to live up to the standard that was established almost four hundred years ago. My family can be proud of its continuing ability to maintain values that bring strength to our communities. Growing up, I knew that I had an ancestor who was one of the pilgrims to first set foot in Plymouth. This knowledge made learning that part of history really meaningful for me. But only now that I have grown and matured do I truly grasp what that meaning is for me. To live with the future as your highest priority requires planning, and often times sacrifices. One of the most important things you must decide when you plan for the future is what beliefs matter to you. You must act upon your beliefs to carry them from one generation to the next. With a long history of successful careers and family life, I am encouraged and challenged to be a link for the next generation.

The Pilgrims went out ready to face anything, but they didn't know what to expect from the new land. They encountered many challenges that couldn't have been overcome if they had not stayed together as a group. The power of a small and tight community has never been shown more so than with the example of my ancestors. What they did is an example for me. They taught me to value my community and to help out those around me. By helping my community I create a stronger union that will be better prepared to face challenges, and perhaps even help me if need be.

My Mayflower ancestry is inspiring, it's an excellent example, and it's motivation for me to live the way my family has been living for hundreds of years. I am certain that without knowing my family history I wouldn't be the same person I am today.
